COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description	This 8-week course is designed to help students improve their basic English skills and become more confident in everyday communication. Through practical tasks and familiar topics, students will develop their abilities in reading, writing, listening, and speaking. By the end of the module, students will be able to understand short texts and conversations, talk about daily routines and past experiences, express simple opinions, and write short, organized paragraphs. The course also focuses on useful vocabulary and the correct use of basic grammar. Students who successfully complete A2 Level will move on to the B1 level.
Course Objectives	Reading: By the end of the module, learners will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Identify the general meaning and supporting details from the texts, including some on less familiar topics (e.g., environment, communication, art).•Recognize pronoun references (e.g., he, she, it, this) and basic cohesive devices (e.g., because, but).•Skim texts to identify the main ideas.•Scan for specific details or keywords to answer detailed comprehension questions.•Interpret the meaning of unfamiliar words or phrases using contextual clues and surrounding text. Listening: By the end of the module, learners will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Recognize the main ideas and key information in conversations on less familiar topics.

- Identify key phrases and commonly used expressions in audio contexts.
- Locate specific details or keywords in structured audio recordings.

Writing: By the end of the module, learners will be able to:

- Use basic sentence structures with reasonable grammatical accuracy, even though some errors may still occur.
- Link simple sentences with connectors like and, but, because.
- Express opinions and describe experiences using simple vocabulary.
- Plan and organize information logically in simple written texts.
- Write short, simple, connected paragraphs (see Writing Specifications for word count) on familiar topics (e.g., a successful person or past events).
- Write an opinion paragraph clearly expressing their point of view on a familiar topic, supported by three simple reasons and examples.

Speaking: By the end of the module, learners will be able to:

- Use basic sentence structures and vocabulary to speak fluently enough to be understood, despite some hesitation or occasional errors.
- Express simple viewpoints and give brief supporting reasons or examples using everyday language.
- Explain ideas related to familiar topics using simple language, with generally accurate pronunciation.
- Respond to familiar prompts by delivering short, clear spoken monologues about personal experiences, opinions, or preferences.

This syllabus is designed in alignment with CEFR A2 descriptors, adapted to the academic and institutional context of Antalya Bilim University.*

Required

Declaration of Grades	Declaration of grades will be made via the university system https://ubs.antalya.edu.tr/
Class Attendance	To successfully complete the A2 level, students must attend at least 80% of the classes and achieve a minimum of 70% success in the exams. Students who fail to meet the 80% attendance requirement—whether excused or unexcused—are not allowed to take the Final exam of the level and must repeat the same module/level. Students who fail due to attendance may continue attending classes until the end of the module if they wish; however, they are not permitted to take the Final exam. Students who arrive late to class are marked absent regardless of how late they are. Students can check their absenteeism daily via the UBS system.
Grading Policy	Students are required to achieve an average score of at least 70% across all assessments in order to pass the course.

Late Assignments	Late submissions are not accepted.
Class Citizenship	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students' behavior should not interfere with or disrupt class activities. Therefore, students are expected to arrive at class on time and stay for the entire class period. Late arrivals and exits are disrespectful and distracting and lead to attendance failure. Students are expected to attend and professionally complete all in-class assignments, tasks, projects, and presentations on the specified dates. It is important that students are respectful towards instructors and fellow classmates (That includes verbal and physical behavior as well as the language used in e-mail and phone messages). Hate speech, racist comments, and discrimination activities are NOT permitted and are punished according to ABU's rules.
Academic Honesty and Plagiarism	Plagiarism is intellectual theft and is by no means tolerated by the university. It is the use of somebody else's ideas, viewpoints, findings, or works in a paper, project, report, or any similar document which is presented as part of a course requirement without proper acknowledgment of the source. Violations of scholastic honesty include, but are not limited to cheating, plagiarizing, fabricating information or citations, facilitating acts of dishonesty by others, having unauthorized possession of examinations, submitting work of another person or work previously used without informing the instructor, or tampering with the academic work of other students. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is a serious academic violation and will result in receiving a grade of "0" for a particular task or an exam and disciplinary action will be taken.

Syllabus Policies and Procedures	Please see the detailed course schedule at the end of this syllabus. The plan below is tentative and subject to change. The syllabus is shared via Microsoft Teams and posted on the noticeboard by the main class instructors. If a student misses class, the student is still responsible for these changes.
