

IAED 1104 Model Making

Prerequisite: None

Credit: (1 + 2) 2

Students are aimed to reflect their own ideas and design by experiencing different techniques of model making. At the beginning of the process, students will improve their skills by focusing on making sketch modelling and on the next stage they will develop skills for making representable models with details. The aim is to help students develop their creativity by improving their technical knowledge.