Course Objectives: The history of photography begins with an image taken by Nicéphore Niépce in 1826–27; what we see is architecture. Thus, since the beginning photography is an important part of narration of architecture in both ways aesthetically or documentary. Therefore, the aim is to provide an overview on the history of photography as well as to teach basic technics of architectural and spatial photography.

Course Description: An overview on the history of photography from camera obscura to Instagram; aesthetic photography in interior architecture; use of photography for documentary purpose; basic information about cameras and lenses; important aspects of architectural photography (light, composition etc.); practice.

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the value of architecture in aesthetic photography and its technics.
2. Develop an understanding on themes like aesthetic view, colour, composition and proportion.
3. Know the basic principles of documentary photography in architecture.
4. Be familiar with the tools of modern photography.
5. Start to develop skills to produce aesthetic and documentary photos.

Planned Learning Activities and Teaching Method: Learning/Teaching Method: This is an elective course and students learn about ecological information by engaging in classwork and presentations. The studio practice is supported by verbal lectures at the beginning of the course and later individual hand-on exercises in the classroom.

Classworks: A series of assignments will be given to students. Students will start doing the assignments in the classroom and continue the assignment at home.

Classwork Development: At the end of each classwork the outcome will be evaluated in the class.

Class Participation: Regular attendance of all enrolled classes is expected. For this course minimum 70% attendance is expected. At the end of the Semester, your attendance will be reported on UBS system. Attendance is compulsory and in case of absenteeism of more than 30%, the system will automatically grade you "FX". If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to 'make up' all work, including items discussed in class. Class contribution will be measured in terms of quality not quantity.

Academic integrity & plagiarism: Academic integrity is the pursuit of scholarly activity based on the values of: honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. Practicing academic integrity means never plagiarizing or cheating, never misrepresenting yourself, never falsifying information, never deceiving or compromising the work of others. Basically this means, either intentionally or unintentionally, using the words or ideas of someone else without giving credit, it's strictly forbidden.

Course Text books: There is no specific textbook for this course. Students are required to study the recommended reading text books and also do researches on the variety of architectural presentation techniques.

Key Works: In this studio course assignments mainly focuses on clear and creative ecological and sustainability of design ideas.

Specific Rules:

1. Be punctual. Punctuality is a sign of respect toward yourself and the others.
2. Show respect for all the people and property around you.
3. Be responsible for your actions and meet all expectations.
